

SUPPLIER EVALUATION BUSINESS IMPACT

Objectives

Assess your suppliers against the 10 fundamentals of the Global compact

Assess the Governance level of your supplier

Assess operational control of your suppliers Environmental and Social performance

Bridging respects the principles of the UN "Global Compact" in terms of human and labour rights, the environment and anti-corruption, and integrates them both internally and in the projects it is entrusted with.

ASSESSMENT CRITERIAS

Business Ethics

The company does not cross any intolerable threshold with regard to the 4 principles of the Global Compact

Humans Rights

- The company owns a policy aiming to respect the humans rights
- The company ensures a control and regulatory watch system

Labour

- The company ensures the protection of workers
- The company measures the risks of its activities on health and safety of the employees and manage an action plan accordingly
- the company promotes employee awareness and involvement

Environment

- The company owns a policy directed towards minimizing the environmental impact of all the activities
- The company measures the environmental impacts of its activities and manage an action plan accordingly

Anticorruption

- The company officially forbid all forms of corruption and act accordingly

BRIDGING TOOL ASSESSMENT

Sustainability and Performance

